United Way Hosts Free Family Night at the Ballpark

Anchorage AK – Don't let any Friday the 13th superstitions keep you away from a free night of baseball on Friday. United Way of Anchorage, courtesy of the Anchorage Bucs, has tickets covered for you and your family at 7 p.m.. on July 13. to watch the Bucs and Anchorage Glacier Pilots play at Mulcahy Stadium.

Free family passes are available at www.liveunitedanc.org/working-together/events/. Just print the pass and bring your family to Mulcahy for good evening of baseball.

The Alaska Baseball League rivals will be playing in a Scouts Showcase game, with major league scouts on hand to assess player potential for the big leagues. So players should take the field with some extra incentive.

And the only superstitions allowed at Mulcahy on Friday will be baseball superstitions. So if a Bucs or Pilots pitcher takes a no-hitter into the late innings, best not to say anything lest you jinx it.

Strong, healthy, prosperous families are fundamental to improving our community. That's why United Way of Anchorage supports activities that bring families together.

This is the 12th year the Anchorage Bucs have donated tickets in support of families and United Way.

Enjoy the game, and check us out at www.liveunitedanc.org.
